This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. DUTIES OF THE OFFICERS OF THE DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE.

ATTORNEY GENERAL.

The Attorney General is the head of the Department of Justice and the chief law officer of the Government. He represents the United States in matters involving legal questions; he gives his advice and opinion when they are required by the President or by the heads of the other executive departments on questions of law arising in the administration of their respective departments; he appears in the Supreme Court of the United States in cases of especial gravity and importance; he exercises a general superintendence and direction over United States attorneys and marshals in all judicial districts in the States and Territories, and he provides special counsel for the United States whenever required by any department of the Government.

SOLICITOR GENERAL.

The Solicitor General assists the Attorney General in the performance of his general duties, and by special provision of law, in case of a vacancy in the office of Attorney General, or of his absence or disability, exercises all those duties. Under the direction of the Attorney General, he has general charge of the business of the Government in the Supreme Court of the United States, and is assisted in the conduct and argument of cases therein by the Assistant Attorneys General. He also, with the approval of the Attorney General, prepares opinions rendered to the President and the heads of the executive departments, and confers with and directs the law officers of the Government throughout the country in the performance of their duties. When the Attorney General so directs, any case in which the United States is interested, in any court of the United States, may be conducted and argued by the Solicitor General, and he may be sent by the Attorney General to attend to the interests of the United States in any State court, or elsewhere.

ASSISTANT TO THE ATTORNEY GENERAL.

The Assistant to the Attorney General has special charge of all suits and other matters arising under the Federal antitrust and interstate commerce laws, and performs such other duties as may be required of him by the Attorney General.

ASSISTANT ATTORNEYS GENERAL.

The several Assistant Attorneys General assist the Attorney General in the performance of his duties. They assist in the argument of cases in the Supreme Court and in the preparation of legal opinions.

Five Assistant Attorneys General are located in the main department building at 1435 K Street and connected buildings, and, in addition to their general duties, particular subjects are assigned to them by the Attorney General for the transaction of business arising thereunder with the United States attorneys, other departments, and private parties in interest.

The office of the Assistant Attorney General, including a number of assistant attorneys and clerks, charged with defending suits in the Court of Claims, is located at 8 Jackson Square.

The Assistant Attorney General in charge of the interests of the Government in all matters of reappraisement and classification of imported goods in litigation before the several boards of United States General Appraisers and the Court of Customs Appeals is located at 641 Washington Street, New York City.

The Assistant Attorneys General and the solicitors for the several executive departments, under the provisions of sections 349–350, Revised Statutes, exercise their functions under the supervision and control of the Attorney General. They are the Assistant Attorney General for the Department of the Interior, the Solicitor for the Department of State, the Solicitor of the Treasury, the Solicitor of Internal Revenue, and the Solicitor of the Department of Commerce, and the Solicitor of the Department of Justice for the Department of Labor.

ASSISTANT ATTORNEY GENERAL FOR THE INTERIOR DEPARTMENT.

This Assistant Attorney General is the chief law officer of that department. When requested, he advises the Secretary and Assistant Secretaries upon questions of law arising in the administration of the department. All appeals from the General Land Office are sent to his office for consideration. Oral arguments are heard by him in the more important cases, or by brief; and decisions are prepared under his supervision for the signature of the Secretary or First Assistant Secretary, as the case may be. The Assistant Attorney General is aided in this and his other work by a number of assistant attorneys.

SOLICITOR FOR THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE.

The Solicitor is the chief law officer of that department. He advises the Secretary and Assistant Secretaries upon questions of municipal and international law referred to him, passes upon claims of citizens of the United States against foreign Governments, claims of subjects or citizens of foreign Governments against the United States, and upon applications for the extradition of criminals. The Assistant Solicitor acts as Solicitor in the absence of the latter, and in the division of the work of the office has general charge of extradition and citizenship matters.

SOLICITOR OF THE TREASURY.

The Solicitor of the Treasury is charged with the supervision of much of the litigation of the Government, and it is his duty to give necessary instructions to United States attorneys, marshals, and clerks of courts in matters and proceedings appertaining to the suits under his superintendence, and to require reports from such officers; to take cognizance of all frauds or attempted frauds upon the revenue (customs) and to exercise a general supervision over the measures for their prevention and detection and for the prosecution of persons charged with the commission thereof; to have charge of lands acquired by the United States in payment of debts (except internal revenue); to make recommendations on offers of compromise (except in post-office cases and in internal-revenue cases before judgment); to effect the release of property owned or held by the United States where it has been attached; to approve the bonds of United States assistant treasurers, collectors of internal revenue, and department disbursing clerks, and to examine all contracts of, and official bonds filed in, the Treasury Department; to issue distress warrants against delinquent collectors and other officers receiving public money, and disbursing officers and their sureties; to examine titles to life-saving station sites; and, as the law officer of the Treasury Department, to give legal advice to the Secretary and other officers of that department on matters arising therein.

SOLICITOR OF INTERNAL REVENUE.

A Solicitor of Internal Revenue was added to the Internal-Revenue Office corps by the act of July 13, 1866 (14 Stat., 170), but by the act of June 22, 1870 (16 Stat., 162), organizing the Department of Justice, the Solicitor was formally transferred to that department. He is the law officer and legal adviser of the Commissioner. The only duties of his of which mention is made by law are in connection with internal-revenue compromise cases, section 3229, Revised Statutes.

SOLICITOR OF THE DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE.

The Solicitor is the chief law officer of that department. His duties are to act as legal advisor for the Secretary of Commerce and the chiefs of the various bureaus of said department, to prepare and examine all contracts and bonds entered into or required by the said department, and to render such legal services in connection with matters arising in the administrative work of the Department of Commerce as may be required of him by the Attorney General.

SOLICITOR OF THE DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE FOR THE DEPARTMENT OF LABOR.

The Solicitor is the chief law officer of that department. His duties are to act as legal advisor for the Secretary of Labor and the chiefs of the various bureaus of said department, to prepare and examine all contracts and bonds entered into or required by the said department, and to render such legal services in connection with matters arising in the administrative work of the Department of Labor as may be required of him by the Attorney General.

THE PUBLIC LANDS DIVISION.

This division was created by the Attorney General November 16, 1909. To it are assigned all suits and proceedings concerning the enforcement of the public land law, including suits or proceedings to set aside conveyances of allotted lands.

CHIEF CLERK.

The chief clerk, under the direction of the Attorney General, has general supervision of the clerks and employees; the consideration of applications for leave of absence; the direction of the force of laborers, charwomen, and watchmen; superintends all buildings occupied by the department in Washington, D. C.; has charge of the horses, wagons, and carriages employed; has supervision of the division of mails and files; the purchase and distribution of supplies for the department and the United States courts; the expenditure of the appropriations for contingent expenses and rents; supervision of the library; the consideration of requisitions upon the Public Printer for printing and binding, and supervision of the preparation of the annual report and the estimates of the department.

DISBURSING CLERK.

The disbursing clerk disburses funds from more than fifty appropriations under the direction of the Attorney General, including the salaries of the justices of the Supreme Court of the United States, the judges of the other United States courts throughout the country, including the Territories; of the United States attorneys, marshals, and other court officials, and of the officials of the department proper; the contingent expenses of the department, and other miscellaneous appropriations.

SUPERINTENDENT OF PRISONS.

The superintendent of prisons has charge, under the direction of the Attorney General, of all matters relating to United States prisons and prisoners, including the support of such prisoners in both State and Federal penitentiaries, in reform schools, and in county jails. He has supervision over the construction work in progress at United States penal institutions.

The superintendent of prisons is ex officio the president of the boards of parole for the United States penitentiaries and the president of the board of parole for United States prisoners in each State or county institution used for the confinement of United States prisoners.

APPOINTMENT CLERK.

The appointment clerk has charge of all matters relating to applications, recommendations, and appointments, including certifications by the Civil Service Commission; conducts correspondence pertaining thereto; prepares nominations sent to the Senate; prepares commissions and appointments for the officers and employees of the department in Washington, and for United States judges, attorneys, and marshals, and other officers under the department. He also compiles the Register of the Department of Justice and matter relating to that department for the Official Register of the United States.

ATTORNEY IN CHARGE OF PARDONS.

The attorney in charge of pardons takes charge of all applications for Executive clemency, except those in Army and Navy cases, these being referred to the Secretary of War and the Secretary of the Navy, respectively; of the briefing of the cases and the correspondence in relation to them.

ATTORNEY IN CHARGE OF TITLES.

The attorney in charge of titles prepares opinions upon the title to lands belonging to or sought to be acquired by the Government for public purposes and opinions upon all legal matters growing out of the same. He has charge of all proceedings to acquire land under eminent domain, and conducts all the correspondence relating to the above matters.

CHIEF, DIVISION OF ACCOUNTS.

The Chief of the Division of Accounts has charge of the examination or audit of all accounts payable from appropriations for expenses of the Department of Justice and the courts of the United States. Accounts of United States marshals, attorneys, clerks, and commissioners are examined, recorded, and transmitted to the Auditor; while other accounts are recorded, audited, and transmitted to the disbursing clerk for payment, under recent legislation.

Authorizations of court expenses, including items for office expenses and clerical assistants for clerks of United States courts; the approval of leases of court accommodations; and the advancement of funds to United States marshals; also matters relating to the appointment of office and field deputy marshals are in charge of the chief of this division.

Statistical information published in the annual report of the Attorney General showing the business transacted in the courts of the United States, bankruptcy statistics, and the various reports required by law pertaining to expenditures under appropriations for the courts and the department are also compiled in this division.

CHIEF, DIVISION OF INVESTIGATION.

The Chief of the Division of Investigation has general supervision of the examination of the offices and records of the Federal court officials throughout the United States, and directs the work of all the examiners, special agents, and accountants of the department, whose compensation or expenses are paid from the appropriation "Detection and prosecution of crimes," and who are employed for the purpose of collecting evidence or of making investigations or examinations of any kind for this department or the officers thereof.

NOTE.—The names of Theophilus Parsons, Robert Smith, Joseph Holt, and Orville H. Browning are omitted for the following reasons:

Theophilus Parsons, of Massachusetts, was nominated on Feb. 18, 1801, as Attorney General in place of Charles Lee, and was confirmed by the Senate, but no commission was issued, as he declined to accept the office. His name is sometimes erroneously included in the lists of Attorneys General.

Robert Smith, of Maryland, who had been Secretary of the Navy for four years, was a lawyer and was anxious to be Attorney General. Jefferson agreed to appoint him provided a suitable Secretary of the Navy could be secured. Accordingly, on Mar. 2, 1805, he nominated Robert Smith as Attorney General, and Jacob Crowninshield, of Massachusetts, as Secretary of the Navy. Both nominations were confirmed, and commissions were issued on Mar. 3, but Crowninshield declined to accept the office tendered to him. Robert Smith continued to act as Secretary of the Navy, and never took the oath of office or performed any duties as Attorney General, and, as a matter of fact, never held the office, though usually included in lists of the Attorneys General. Complete proof that John Breckinridge succeeded Levi Lincoln and that Robert Smith was never Attorney General is found in the following extracts from the United States Reports (3 Cranch, III): "On the 12th day of Feb., 1806, the honorable John Breckinridge was sworn in as Attorney General of the United States in the place of the honorable Levi Lincoln, resigned."

Joseph Holt: On Dec. 1, 1864, the President appointed Joseph Holt, of Kentucky, Attorney General. Mr. Holt absolutely declined to accept the office, and on Dec. 2 James Speed, of Kentucky, was appointed Attorney General.

Orville H. Browning: On Mar. 12, 1868, Attorney General Stanbery resigned in order to serve as one of the counsel of President Johnson in the impeachment proceedings before the Senate. It was the President's intention to reappoint him after the trial, so, instead of appointing a successor to Mr. Stanbery, he appointed Orville H. Browning, Secretary of the Interior, Attorney General ad interim, and directed him to perform the duties of that office in addition to his own as Secretary of the Interior.
